

Liberty Members' Conference

Saturday 18th May 2013

Liberty's Members' Conference brings together people who are passionate about human rights.

Join us from 9.15am on Saturday 18th May 2013 at Senate House in London for inspiring talks and lively debate.

There will be discussions between politicians, Liberty campaigners and high-profile human rights activists, as well as a selection of human rights workshops to choose from:

- Human rights in recession
- A surveillance century?
- Is speech free online?
- Protecting life – Deepcut and beyond

The day will be rounded up with a keynote speech from Liberty Director Shami Chakrabarti on the human rights and civil liberties issues that we face today.

Started in 1934 by just a handful of campaigners, Liberty has grown into an influential and respected movement, uniting thousands of people from across generations and political viewpoints in support of freedom and fairness. Our annual conference is an opportunity for our members to help develop and shape the direction of the organisation in the run up to our 80th year in 2014.

Please come along and help make this year's conference our best yet.

Join Liberty from just £1 a month for the chance to attend...

Call the membership team on 020 7378 3663
or visit www.liberty-human-rights.org.uk/about/agm

LIBERTY

PROTECTING CIVIL LIBERTIES
PROMOTING HUMAN RIGHTS

Confirmed speakers:

Actress, author and human rights campaigner

Joanna Lumley

In conversation with Shami Chakrabarti

Blogger, science fiction author and campaigner

Cory Doctorow

Workshop: A surveillance century?

Executive Director of Privacy International

Gus Hosein

Workshop: A surveillance century?

Shadow Attorney General

Emily Thornberry MP

Panellist