World-class legal education in the heart of London

Professional Studies Open Day

Saturday 01 November 2008

Our Professional Studies Open Day will start with a welcome from Professor Adrian Keane, author of Keane on Evidence, who will introduce you to the School, our history and our courses.

You will then have the chance to:

- Meet our experienced and student focused teaching staff
- Discover our exceptional facilities and location
- Gain invaluable advice on pupillages and training contracts
- Learn about Pro Bono opportunities and placements
- Benefit from advice on scholarships and awards

You will also be able find out about our exceptional professional legal courses, each designed to fully prepare you for practice:

LEGAL PRACTICE COURSE: Our LPC is one of the best in the country and has consistently achieved the top rating from the Solicitors Regulation Authority in each assessment area.

BAR VOCATIONAL COURSE: The original bar course, our BVC sets the standard for the profession and has been developed with practitioners to ensure you receive the very best legal training.

Plus, all attendees will be entered into our FREE prize draw, the winner of which will get the latest Wii Sports and Fitness package!

When: Saturday 01 November 2008, 11am - 2pm
Where: Atkin Building, Gray's Inn, London WC1R 5DX
